NEW YORK – (May 8, 2024) – DeNiro Con, a celebration of 80 years of Robert DeNiro, today unveiled its programming lineup. Coinciding with the 2024 Tribeca Festival, this three-day tribute takes place at Spring Studios in New York City from June 14-16. DeNiro Con is powered by Webex Events, allowing fans to download an exclusive app to make the most of their Con experience.

EMBARGOED PRESS RELEASE

Programming includes a screening series with 13 classic DeNiro films, including the 50th anniversary of Mean Streets; live conversations with long-time collaborators; a career-spanning exhibit consisting of never-before-seen materials from DeNiro's personal archive; the world premiere of the immersive short film DeNiro, New York; and exclusive fan experiences and activations.

"I can't think of a better way to celebrate 80 years of Robert DeNiro, my dear friend and co-conspirator for the past 35 years, than by throwing a big bash for his fellow New Yorkers," said Tribeca co-founder and CEO Jane Rosenthal. "From conversations with legends like Martin Scorsese, Quentin Tarantino, and David O. Russell to fan experiences, it is going to be a truly historic weekend as we pay tribute to a great talent."

Film screenings include the world premiere of A Bronx Tale: The Original One Man Show with an introduction by Chazz Palminteri; Jackie Brown, followed by a conversation with director Quentin Tarantino and DeNiro; Analyze This, followed by a conversation with stars Billy Crystal and DeNiro, moderated by Whoopi Goldberg; Silver Linings Playbook followed by a conversation with director David O. Russell; New York, New York with an introduction by Kathrine Narducci; The Good Shepherd with an introduction by John Turturro; Goodfellas followed by a conversation with screenwriter Nicholas Pileggi, moderated by Alfonso Gomez-Rejon; The Deer Hunter with an introduction by star Christopher Walken; Meet The Parents with an introduction by Ahmed Ahmed; as well as screenings of The Godfather Part II, Raging Bull, and Taxi Driver.

"Robert DeNiro is an acting icon," said Billy Crystal. "He is one of my closest friends and working with him was one of the great experiences of my career. I'm really excited to honor him and his fantastic career this June."

The 50th Anniversary of Mean Streets, presented by City National Bank, includes a post-screening conversation with Martin Scorsese and DeNiro, moderated by Nas at the Beacon Theatre.

Expanding beyond the DeNiro Con weekend and spanning the duration of the Tribeca Festival, fans can experience the never-before-seen DeNiro Is an Icon: An Exhibit & Immersive Film. This career-spanning gallery will feature more than 300 curated items from DeNiro's personal archive, including rare photographs, annotated scripts, costumes, research materials, and storyboards. Accompanying the exhibit is the world premiere of DeNiro, New York, a first-of-its-kind short film produced by Little Cinema that forges new connections and dialogues by weaving together DeNiro's iconic characters from more than 40 films. Presented within the Hexadome, a cutting-edge structure and format crafted by Berlin's Institute for Sound and Music, this immersive installation with six screens and 52 channels of sound, seamlessly merges pop culture with high art. The three-day celebration also includes a talk with French artist JR.

EMBARGOED PRESS RELEASE

Capping off the DeNiro Con celebration are a range of fun-filled interactive activations based on some of DeNiro's most beloved films, including Max Cady's prison tattoo parlor from Cape Fear (where fans can get real or temporary tattoos), Travis Bickle's bedroom from Taxi Driver, and Jack Byrnes' infamous polygraph test from Meet The Parents. Additional fan events include a DeNiro Trivia Night and the DeNiro Hero Sandwich Competition.

DE NIRO CON SCREENINGS & TALKS

A Bronx Tale

The Original One Man Show - World Premiere. In 1988, Bronx native Chazz Palminteri wrote the one-man autobiographical stage play A Bronx Tale, in which he plays all 18 characters. The powerful stage play depicted his bruising childhood, which included witnessing a gangland killing when he was nine years old. Palminteri received multiple offers from major Hollywood studios to turn the play into a film. None of these offers respected his wishes to write the screenplay and star in the role of Sonny, until Robert DeNiro saw the show and gave Palminteri
